

2023 Global Young Creatives Residency Call for Participants

Jeju Special Self-Governing Province and UNITAR Jeju International Training Center are launching a call for proposals for the 2023 Global Youth Creative Residency (GYCR), an international exchange art project where young cultural and arts professionals from various fields around the world gather in Jeju to discuss art and sustainability, and showcase their creative abilities. We hope to receive a great deal of interest and support from domestic and international artists and cultural arts experts who seek to understand Jeju's unique natural environment, ecology, and cultural background, and expand them into global issues, exploring practical approaches to sustainability through art and creation.

II Activities and Application Details

- Activities:
  - 2023 Global Young Creatives Residency will be conducted in the form of an Art Week, aiming to facilitate substantial connections and expand networks through the invitation of internationally renowned experts and the selection of promising participating artists.
  - For one week, participants engage in programs such as lectures, talks, workshops, tours, and networking sessions centered around three main themes: ① Roots - environmental and traditional origins of Jeju, ② Pillars - sustainability of various art fields through art, and ③ Branches and Leaves - international exchange and infinite expansion. They share experiences and inspiration with each other.
  - As such, a performance review report based on active participation and insights exchanged during the one-week period is requested to be submitted.
- Residency period: September 14 (Thur.) 10:00 ~ September 20 (Wed.) 20:00 (7 days)
- Residency location: The whole area of the Jeju Special Self-Governing Province, Republic of Korea
  - Venue for constant networking and accommodation for lecturers:
Reflow Jeju (<https://reflow.city/>)
  - Accommodation for participants:
Hotel RegentMarine Jeju (<https://www.hotelrmbblue.com/>)
- Supporting services
  1. Transportation
    - 1) After the Residency, participants will be reimbursed for round-trip airfare costs from their country to Jeju. Participants are responsible for purchasing their own plane tickets. UNITAR Jeju International Training Center will not provide plane tickets for participants.
    - 2) Participants are expected to book the lowest-priced economy-class airfare available. Business-class or first-class airfare will not be reimbursed. Participants are encouraged to book flights at least 20 days in advance to avoid premium airfare pricing.

3) Notes

- ① The additional costs incurred due to personal choices such as seat selection, extra baggage, special in-flight meals other than the purchase cost of the plane ticket are the responsibility of individual participant.
- ② Reimbursement is only possible upon submission of supporting documents that clearly state the participant's name.
  - a. All claims for reimbursement of airfare must be documented by a copy of the original receipt or online receipt (in US Dollar). Credit card statements are not acceptable.
  - b. Documents that participants must submit to UNITAR Jeju International Training Center are:
    - An e-ticket with the airfare stated in US Dollar
    - An original receipt with the amount paid stated in US Dollar
    - A copy of your passport
    - All boarding passes to Jeju from the point of your departure
  - c. Please note that the e-ticket, copy of the original receipt, and copy of the passport must be submitted by September 7 (Thur.) at 18:00 Korea Standard Time at the latest, which is one week before the start of the Residency.
  - d. Participants must keep copies of the original documents in the event that the paperwork is misplaced or lost.
- ③ Reimbursement will only be made to participants who attend and complete the full schedule of the workshop program including the field visit, and when all documents are received. Reimbursement will be made via wire transfer in US Dollars.
- ④ Reimbursement will be provided for round-trip flight tickets that arrive and depart within a maximum of 1-2 days before or after the Residency period.
- ⑤ Participants are responsible for the local transportation in his/her country and arranging his/her visa including a visa fee.
- ⑥ Participants are responsible for arranging their own transportation between Jeju International Airport and their accommodation.
- ⑦ Expenses such as living costs other than meals during the Residency period are the responsibility of the individual.

- 4) UNITAR Jeju International Training Center only provides a limited financial assistance for participants. The table below represents the maximum amount eligible for reimbursement for round-trip airfare based on the participant's region. If the final airfare paid by the participant is lower than the amount specified in the table, then UNITAR Jeju International Training Center will only reimburse the exact amount paid.
